Self-Evaluation and Educational Objective

We ask the following questions to learn more about your reasons for applying for the WCLA Scholarship and your ability to benefit from it. Your responses and how you express yourself are a very important part of your application. Please make sure you proof your responses for proper spelling, grammar and punctuation. Please type or print your responses on separate sheets of paper and enclose with the application. We are interested in knowing about the following:

- a. Describe how you have demonstrated leadership ability both in and out of school.
- b. Describe your most meaningful achievements and how they relate to your field of study and your future goals.
- c. Discuss what you consider to be the most important issues facing the timber industry.
- d. Discuss your educational and career goals.

I certify that all statements in this application are correct to the best of my knowledge.
