

MASTER LOGGER PROGRAM

Continuing Education Report Form

To remain current as a Master Logger, eight hours of continuing education credits must be submitted prior to the certification expiration date.

Please complete the following as applicable and return to:

Washington Contract Loggers Association, Inc.
P.O. Box 2168, Olympia, WA 98507-2168
(800) 422-0074

Tami Au, Ext. 139 or Jerry Bonagofsky, Ext. 113

Name _____ Certification # _____

Employer _____

Business Phone _____

General Information: One hour of instruction or service generally equals one hour of credit. Submit a copy of the meeting agenda/registration form so we can determine the proper number of credits to apply. Attendance can be verified by a signature of instructor, or copy of agenda/meeting notice/registration form.

Conference, Course, Seminar attended	Credit Hours	Dates Attended	Location of Event	Verified by
Washington Logging Safety Conference
WCLA Annual Meeting
Oregon Logging Conference
Washington State Governor's Safety & Health Conference
AOL Annual Conference
Pacific Logging Conference
Intermountain Forest Industry Association Annual Meeting
RT 130 or fire refresher course training
Olympic Logging Conference
Master Logger Program

Continued on back

Conference, Course, Seminar attended	Credit Hours	Dates Attended	Location of Event	Verified by
Forest Products Safety Conference
Society of American Foresters Meetings
Farm Forestry Association Meetings
Intermountain Logging Conference
American Society of Safety Engineers Meetings
Dept. of Labor & Industries Workshops
DNR Training Seminars
WSU Extension Courses
Completion of High School or College Level Courses
First Aid ***
Pilot car training
WCLA and other Organization Board Member Meetings
Washington Forest Protection Association Meetings
Other*

** If you are already certified in the Master Logger Program, you may retake one day, or multiple days, of the original four-day course to earn continuing education credits. Each day is worth eight credits.

*** First Aid training is worth a maximum of four c/e credits every two years.

**** Other continuing education programs are subject to approval for the awarding of credits. Please call WCLA for additional information at (800) 422-0074 - Tami Au, Ext. 139, or Jerry Bonagofsky, Ext. 113.